New Cleaning Plant, Formal Wear Rental Firm Hold Grand Opening

Grand opening of Esquire Cleaners and Tux Shop at 3858 Sepulveda Blvd. will be celebrated today, tomorrow and Saturday with gifts, specials, and fashion hints for formal wear.

The complete and modern plant adjacent to the Jim Dandy Market, combines expert cleaning facilities and rental of formal wear, announced owner John Lococo, who is operating another cleaning establishment in the Hollywood Riviera area at 1806 S. Catalina St.

In the tuxedo rental department, Esquire will feature the latest fashion trends with color replacing the monotonous black, and whites. Latest fashions call for gray, gold, blue and even bright red dinner jackets and cutaways, he said.

Lococo said that his new Stanu cleaning process guarantees longer life to clothes, and meticulous care of clothing is taken by his staff.

Free gifts will be presented to all who stop by the establishment during the grand opening. Special low prices will be featured.

Brown Backers To Meet

The last general meeting of the "Torrance Voters for Pat Brown for Governor" was held at the McMaster Park Recreation building, 3624 W. 174th st., on Monday, Oct. 13, at 8 p.m., Mayor Albert Isen, chairman, announced this week.

Harmon Belcher has been named by the committee as vice chairman for the North Torrance area. Representing the South Torrance area as a vice chairman will be John Barton. Grover Hatcher will serve the committee in the western section of the city as a vice chairman. Annela M. Patterson is the committee chairman and Mrs. Herma Tillim was appointed the committee treasurer.

Mayor Isen also announced that J. A. Beasley, Torrance councilman, and Alfred Cagle will act as vice chairmen at large. Joseph Platt was appointed publicity chairman by Mayor Isen.

Vincent Thomas, Assemblyman for the 88th District, is the honorary chairman of the "Pat Brown Committee."

The committee is issuing an invitation to any voter in the Torrance area interested in Edmund G. "Pat" Brown as a candidate for the office of Governor of California to attend Monday's meeting.

Baptists Have Workers Retreat

California Baptists Seminary in Covina was the scene recently of a leaders and workers retreat, arranged by the leadership committee of Western Ave. Baptist Church of Harbor City.

The lay development program was presented by Mrs. Winnie Graham, committee chairman, to approximately 70 church members who heard the organizational reports and took part in the discussion periods on how to better serve the church and the community.

Plan Pageant

Luncheon was served in the seminary dining hall and during the afternoon session which followed, plans were made to feature a great "Pageant of Progress" on the church grounds, Nov. 2. Members will be invited to a potluck dinner preceding the pageant, which will reveal progress of the church in the past and present and suggest the future of the church.

"Together for Progress" was the subject of Dr. Doward McBain, pastor of First Baptist Church of Covina at the Saturday meeting.

A banquet was served at the conclusion of the evening.

Planning Board Sought by Hahn

On motion of Supervisor Kenneth Hahn, authority was given this week to the County Road Commissioner and the County Engineer to set up a master planning board to coordinate planning and construction of large public works projects involving several jurisdictions.

Such a planning board is needed, Supervisor Hahn said, in order that major projects can be built more effectively and reduce public inconvenience to a minimum.

The need for more cooperative planning was demonstrated recently in Supervisor Hahn's district where County Road Department recently completed the widening of El Segundo Blvd. from two lanes to six lanes between Central Ave. and Aviation Blvd. The Metropolitan Water District is now planning to install a major water main, five-feet in diameter, clear across the length of newly improved roadway, to provide additional water to the Hawthorne-South Bay areas.

Guil Sponsors Party

St. Monica's Guild of St. Philomena Catholic Church will sponsor a card party at the school hall, 21900 S. Main at 8 p.m. Friday. Open to the public, bridge, five hundred, pinocle and bunco will be played. There will be prizes and refreshments.

APPROVE SUBDIVISION

A three-acre subdivision, located north of Lomita Blvd. and west of Western Ave. for 17 single family residences, was approved this week by the County Regional Planning Commission. The application was filed by Henry Kaluzok.

"Too often the unfit driver injures or kills before being stopped," Calvin Fentress, Jr., chairman of the board, Allstate Insurance Companies, declared recently. "Strict driver licensing laws should be demanded by the public to screen drivers more carefully and reduce accidents."
